Department of Philosophy

Programme Outcome & Course Outcomes

Session- 2022-23

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES:

This program aims to explain different philosophical positions or theories in both Indian and Western tradition and contemporary. After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to:

- Understand the broad ideas that are enshrined in the basic thinking of various centers of philosophy,
- Recognize and respond to different kinds of questions or problems,
- Utilize philosophy to understand social realities and problems and to come up with ideal solutions to them,
- Analyze contemporary and historical argumentative texts and extract the relevant views and arguments from them,
- Evaluate philosophical arguments and provide appropriate grounds,
- Present a sustained argumentative case in written form, addressing potential counter-arguments and objections.
- Identify how deeply philosophy is connected to other disciplines like economics, natural sciences and literature,
- Articulate one's own points of view in a clear, consistent, concise and thorough manner. That is, they are expected to apply knowledge of philosophical perspectives, logic, and critical reasoning to develop their opinions regarding philosophical problems as well as the practical questions about individual conduct and public policy raised by contemporary social and technological developments,
- Know the fundamental truths about themselves, the world in which they live and their relationships to the world and to each other,
- Develop critical thinking skills. Every Philosophical discourse can be understood by very critical and analytical thought process, which helps in growing knowledge about some fundamental problems connected with reality, existence, knowledge, values, reason, mind and language.

- Develop the ability how to establish a valid argument and how to avoid the invalid ones which actually enhances their correct way of reasoning. It is not only useful in philosophical discourse but in other disciplines as well,
- Enrich their writing skill which will be the reflection of clarity of mind, and logical thinking, and
- Differentiate between right and wrong, good and bad by applying moral principle in there everyday life.
