Report on Tree Plantation Programme in Shyamapur Village

Date: Wednesday, September 11, 2019

Location: Shyamapur village

Organized by: Kabi Jagadram Roy Government General Degree College

Objective: To promote environmental sustainability, combat climate change, and engage with the local community through a tree plantation drive.

Activities:

- Tree sapling distribution
- Plantation of 50 trees
- Soil preparation and digging
- Awareness campaigns on environmental importance

Participants:

- 20 college students
- 2 village residents and local authorities
- 3 faculty members (supervisors)

Officer-in-Charge
Kabi Jagadram Roy Govt. General Degree College
Mejia-722143, Dist-Bankura, W.B.

Impact:

- 50 trees planted
- Enhanced biodiversity and ecosystem balance
- Improved air quality and carbon sequestration
- Strengthened community engagement and awareness

Challenges:

- Limited resources and funding
- Harsh weather conditions (scorching heat)
- Initial hesitation from villagers

Recommendations:

- Secure funding for future expansion
- Collaborate with local authorities for land allocation
- Involve villagers in maintenance and monitoring

Conclusion:

The tree plantation drive was a resounding success, showcasing the collective efforts of college students and the local community. This initiative not only contributed to environmental sustainability but also fostered social responsibility and community engagement. Future endeavors will build upon this achievement, expanding our environmental footprint.
