A Brief Report

'Women Empowerment begins with individual Health and Hygiene'

In a third world country like India where a considerable percentage of human population thrives below the poverty line, it is expected that the personal women health and hygiene would be the last priority in day-to-day life. Kabi Jagadram Roy Government General Degree College, situated in rural area of Bankura district, critically acknowledges the need of personal health and hygiene of the women. On the significant juncture of 'International Day of Action for Women's Health' & 'Menstruation Hygiene Day (MHD)', and celebrating the official inauguration of 'SUCHETANA', an Outreach Social Programme undertaken by Kabi Jagadram Roy Government General Degree College an awareness programme on menstrual hygiene of women was organized by the members of team 'SUCHETANA': Dr. Nivedita Chakraborty (convener), Dr. Arpita chauni (Jt. Convener), Dr. Indrani Hazra (member) and Ms. Indrani Mondal (Member) under the guidance of Sri Alope Kumar Das (Chairperson and Officer-in-Charge) and Dr. Aresh Kumar Maji (IQAC Coordinator).

Targeted audience:

All the stake holders of this college, especially the female students.

Objective:

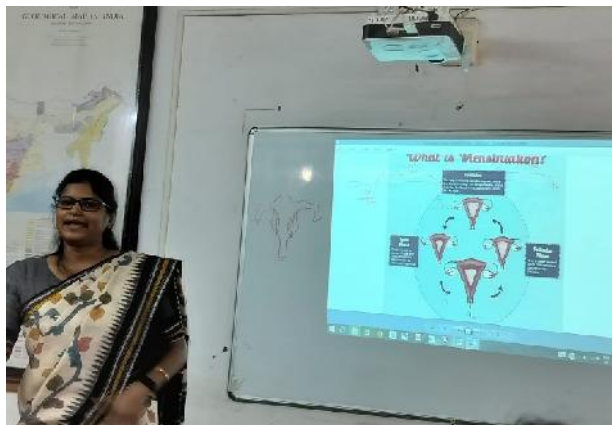

- To break the taboo of being embarrassed, feeling discomfort to discuss on menstruation
- To sensitize the students on menstrual hygiene
- To overcome the general ignorance and negligence on various issues regarding the menstrual hygiene.
- Primary counseling on prevention of cervical cancer.

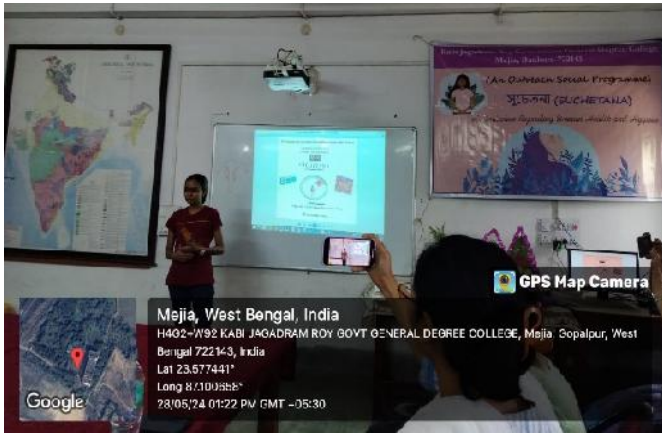

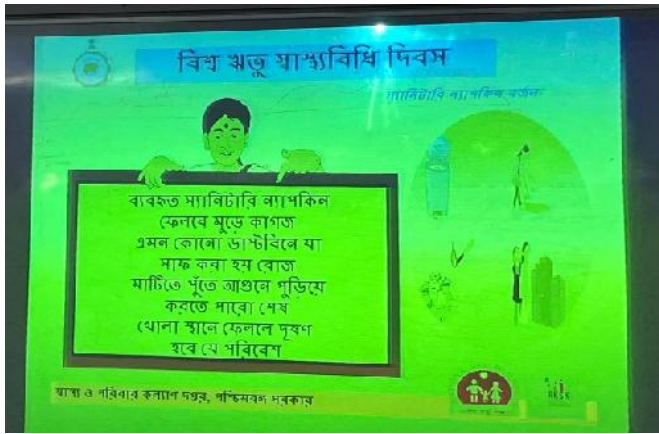

Resource persons:

The awareness session was conducted under the direction of Dr. Kastuturi Roy, Medical Officer and Mrs. Sanghati Dasgupta, Lady Councilor (RKSK), BPHC, Mejia.

Participation:

Fifty-nine (59) enthusiastic participants actively took part to make the two events towards a positive direction.
